July 30, 2025

Next Tuesday night is going to be such a great opportunity for us to show love to the football and cheerleaders in our community. The meal will begin at 7:00 PM in our gym followed by a testimony from Josh Aka, a wide receiver at Ole Miss. Be here at 5:00 to help serve and hear his story too! If you cannot be here to help serve, would you consider making a dessert and dropping it off Tuesday or participate through a financial contribution? There are opportunities to serve in the kitchen before and during the night as well as help with the clean up after everything is over.

We are also under two weeks away from our fall revival with Dr. Larry McEwen. Last year he brought us a message about the nature and purpose of the church from the book of Acts. This year will focus on who the Holy Spirit is and the difference He makes when we surrender to Him. Begin to pray now about who God is leading you to invite to be with us during these services. Brooke has some wonderful worship planned for us including the Mulberry Jam Band on Sunday evening. After worship they are going to jam for us in the Fellowship Hall while we enjoy ice cream sundaes for dessert!

Grace and peace,
Newlie
